Foreword

As we assume our several roles in the difficult and baffling arena of graduate and professional life, we must ever keep before us the ideals and goals which we have set for ourselves. We have traveled along the avenues fraught with complexity.

In these pages we are attempting to show through words and pictures the patterns of life at Winston-Salem State College which have helped us to realize these goals. Although it is impossible to depict the many experiences we have shared, or the many emotions we have felt, we hope that all who read this book will understand why we say "Exultingly we praise thy name, O' Winston-Salem State College."

Dedication

Dr. Joseph N. Patterson

Dr. Joseph N. Patterson has been a source of inspiration and encouragement to all with whom he has come in contact. "Dr. Pat," as he is fondly called by those who know him, is greatly admired and respected by everyone for his outstanding sense of dedication and his efforts to put himself wholly into the task of preparing us for that which lies ahead.

Our love for this great man is not easily expressed, but to use one of his own words, we think Dr. Patterson is "tremendous!"

To express our appreciation, we lovingly dedicate to him, the 1969 Ram.

Kenneth R. Williams, President

These are the days that demand the best of all of us as new challenges, new problems and new responsibilities present themselves each day. The Winston-Salem State College Family has shown its determination to adjust to this new and demanding age in a rational and responsible manner.

The individuals and groups shown in this yearbook have contributed in substantial ways to the development and expansion of Winston-Salem State College. They, and many others not shown, have given new meaning to the motto of the College, "Enter to learn, depart to serve."

STUDENT GOVERNMENT MESSAGE

Fellow Students:

The student government exists on our campus as an instrument of student expression in all aspects of college life—educational, social, cultural and policy-making; and to give the student practical experiences in participating in the governing of his surroundings as well as himself.

Objectives of the Student Government Association must be (a) to maintain academic freedom and student rights; (b) to stimulate and improve democratic student government and student participation in that government; (c) to work toward participation and thus demanding better educational standards, facilities, teaching methods in the total improvement of the college; (d) to improve student cultural, social and physical welfare through a complete re-orientation of basic personal values and attitudes.

The Student Council over the past year has moved in this direction. This move must not now be allowed to relapse. Rather the spirit of the times must be sighted and, moving unrelentingly toward that spirit, the Student Council with the full and active support of the entire Student Government Association must forge ahead as the unchallenged leader of the student body.

This past administration worked during the year for the betterment of all the students. It spearheaded the successful Feed the Poor Campaign, Non-compulsory class attendance policy, completion of the SGA Constitution, reforms in cafeteria food policy, and tutorial programs.

Socially, the Miss Winston-Salem State College campaign, the "Peaches and Herb" show, and the Inez and Charlie Foxx show. These were sponsored by the SGA. Our involvement in the production of the Homecoming Festivities made this a gala remembrance for the student body.

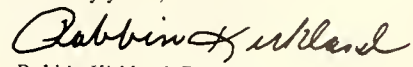

At this time, the President wishes to express his sincere appreciation to all of the members of the SGA generally and the members of the Student Council specifically for having given their personal aid and trust to his office in making this calendar year a success in its own way. You have worked, for the most part, with a dedication that will be forever remembered and cherished. Our efforts would have been marred most tremendously without your sacrifices. Thank you.

There is room, however, for much improvement. Therefore, I challenge each student here at State College to start toward this goal of improvement with new dedication, with much vigor, interest, and a sense of necessity and rightness in purpose.

We have been fortunate, somewhat, in our strides toward internal advancement and unity of purpose, therefore we must continue, now, to work and push forward for more needed changes for the total college community's improvement. The SGA must no longer concern itself simply with the social activities—dances, games and movies—of the college program, rather with the whole college—educational, social, cultural and policy-making.

I have enjoyed my association with you over the years. In unity, there IS strength, thus "Let us do together that which we cannot do alone." For a better WSSC, I am.

Sincerely yours,

Robbin Kirkland, President

Appreciation

Mrs. Louise Gaither
Advisor

For two years we have confided in her with our problems. She has given us her devotion and leadership throughout the years. We the members of the Senior Class of 1969 would like to thank this worthy lady, Mrs. Louise Gaither.

Acknowledgement

It is impossible to give credit to everyone who has participated in the making of this yearbook. There are a few people though, to whom we would like to give laurels, for they most certainly did more than their share in bringing this book to the student body.

Sports editor Arthur Blue deserves many thanks for taking over the job after three people were unable to complete the job. Betty Floyd kept the cameramen rolling and saw that we were kept in pictures the first semester. She was also the chief pacifier and tranquilizer for the editor. John Hill and James Hairston did an excellent job on photography under the instruction of James Brown, who is also responsible for all our beautiful pictures.

Mary DeBerry was an excellent secretary and secured her job well by setting up a file system that only she could understand. Prentice White worked arduously at all the little necessary jobs no one else would do and also did a beautiful job with the "Classes" section.

A big laurel crown goes to Barbara Hassell for helping with proof reading the layouts throughout the yearbook.

Barbara Bass did an impeccable job as assistant editor and deserves bouquets for putting up with all our griping. Thanks to Betty McPhatter, who came in at the last minute to help with the typing.

Money is always lacking in a yearbook budget and thanks go to all underclassmen for giving additional funds needed to complete the yearbook. Perhaps our biggest laurel should go to Mrs. Louise H. Gaither who was possibly the best and most co-operative advisor any group could have. thanks to Mr. W. E. Bullock for taking time in helping us to make this book a great success.

These are but a few of the many that we owe laurels and bouquets to but they are the ones who worked most diligently and were most dependable. To those few we haven't mentioned our many thanks go to you also.

Class 1968-1972

O, God, Great Architect of the Universe,
When the shadows lengthen and the evening comes;
And the busy world is hushed and the fever of life
is ended, and the work on earth is done.
Then, of Thy tender mercy grant him a safe lodging—
A holy rest and peace at the last forever.

Amen

Show me where you live?

In the mist of all my troubles.

Now class....

We came for Parent's Day.

I'm the home for girls.

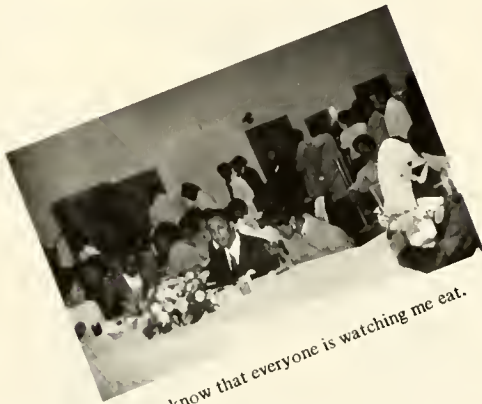

How right you are.

I love to take pictures.

I know that everyone is watching me eat.

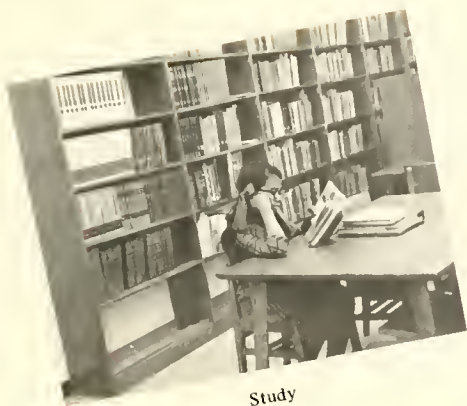

I'll sign.

We can see more of the show back stage. But I hope it doesn't come down on us.

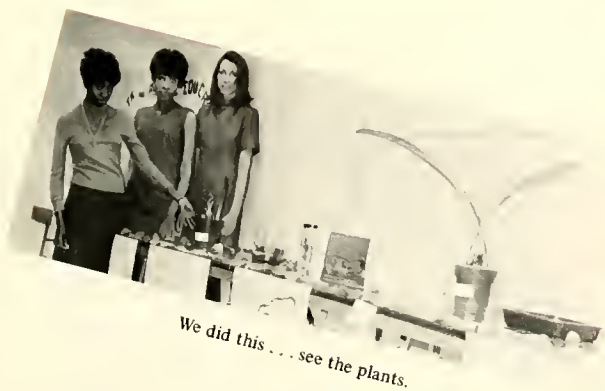

He's getting their autographs.

Study

We're making good progress.

We did this . . . see the plants.

Will this do...

This is what no compulsory class attendance does.

Working time.

I shall demonstrate only once.

Once upon a time Columbus discovered America.

Dr. Williams may I present this ten billion dollar check.

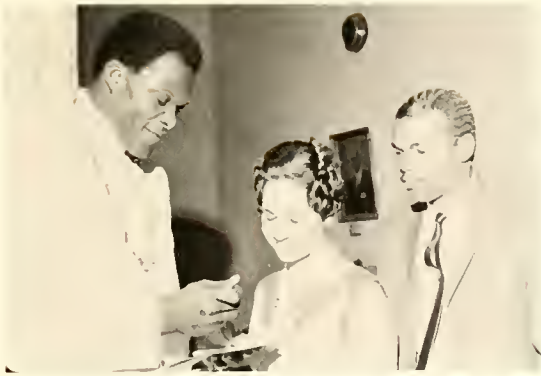

You can have an Afro like mine, too.

Do you think it is right for us to cut class just to show off our clothes???

Good boy, you did your Math correctly.

Aren't we fine examples of the band.

See it doesn't take long to make a beautiful girl beautiful.

Don't you like my curled Afro.

Hold it! Or I'll destroy the whole class.

According to Plato . . . That's right Dr. P. . . .

We Forgot You.*
